8th November 2024

Awards of the week

Stars of the week

Willow class: Theo L for working really hard in his writing.

Chestnut class: Ava for trying really hard in her guided reading.

Oak class: George M for showing a great attitude to school and learning.

Hazel class: Zak for not giving up when writing his sonnet and creating lovely imagery.

Sports star of the week for activities outside of school

Sebastian for participating in a hockey competition where his team came first.

Good Samaritan of the week

Theo L for being caring towards others during a fire alarm practice.

Readers of the week

Nikolaj, Isabella R, Finley, Ellie-Mai, Bella B, Toby, Ava, Brogan, Erin, George, Teddy, Ashtyn. Sebastian, Mia, Rares, Kayden, Huw, Bobby, Bella L-M and this week Eli and Lily got their Bronze reading awards!

Please remember to let us know if your child has achieved anything outside of school that we could celebrate with them. They may have received a medal in sports, certificate for swimming/ gymnastics etc, new belt in a martial art, art award or anything else within a club or group they belong to.

Swimming- clothes and kit please

Could all children swimming this week please have their usual swimming kit- which should include a swimming hat (lots seem to not bring their own, or forget to return the few spares we have), this week they also need shorts and a t-shirt, or old pyjamas to wear over the top of their usual swimming costume. This is for the survival training they need to do. Thank you.

Club changes this half term

In case you did not pick this up before half term, we have changed two clubs this half term, there will be no fun maths club as Mrs Stone will be training up any children going in for sporting competitions instead. Also, Art club will now only be for year 1-year 6 children.

Bookable phone slots with teachers

If you would like to book a phone call with a teacher this week, please use class dojo for when there are times available. Or message on dojo for a different mutually convenient time with the class teacher if these do not work for you.

Willow class sharing assembly and book sharing session

On Friday 15th November at 2.30 pm. All parents and carers are welcome to come to watch Willow class' sharing assembly and share their school work afterwards. We hope you can come.

Remembrance Day

On Monday, at the invitation of Rev. Cake and some residents of the Mary Warner Homes. some of Hazel class will be attending a Remembrance service at Boyton church. We are delighted to have Sergeant

Moffatt coming in to talk about the importance of the day with the children and to accompany us to the war memorial to observe a silence and prayer as well.

Children in Need

The School Council have asked that we support Children in Need this year with a non-school uniform day. The theme is spots, Children in need clothes or bright colours (like neon colours). Please can the children bring in cash donations on Friday for this good cause. There will be certificates for the best effort in costume.

Farlingaye High School Open Evening

Farlingaye have an open morning on 29th November at 9.45 am and there may be more on their website. <https://www.farlingaye.suffolk.sch.uk/Calendar/> If you wish to take your year 6 child to attend an open morning, please let us know for our registers, thank you.
